

FREEDOM: THEN AND NOW ...

ATHENIAN

1976

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.
A DECLARATION
BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
IN GENERAL CONGRESS ASSEMBLED.

W H E N in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the Political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent Respect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the Separation.

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness--That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient Causes; and accordingly all Experience hath shewn, that Mankind are more disposed to suffer, while Evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the Forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long Train of Abuses and Usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a Design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their Right, it is their Duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future Security. Such has been the patient Sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the Necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The History of the present King of Great-Britain is a History of repeated Injuries and Usurpations, all having in direct Object the Establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid World.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public Good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing Importance, unless suspended in their Operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the Accommodation of large Districts of People, unless those People would relinquish the Right of Representation in the Legislature, a Right inestimable to them, and formidable to Tyrants only.

He has called together Legislative Bodies in Places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the Depository of their public Records, for the sole Purpose of fatiguing them into Compliance.

He has dissolved Representative

For quartering large Bodies of Troops among us.

For protecting them, by mock Trials, from Punishment.

For cutting off our Trade with all Parts of the World.

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent.

For depriving us, in many Cases, of the Benefits of Trial by Jury.

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended Offences.

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein arbitrary Government, and enlarging its Boundaries, to as to render it at once an Example and fit Instrument for introducing the same absolute Rule into these Colonies.

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments.

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with Power to legislate for us in all Cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our Seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our Towns, and destroyed the Lives of our People.

He is at this Time, transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the Works of Death, Desolation, and Tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty and Perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous Ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized Nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the Executioners of their Friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic Insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the Inhabitants of our Frontier, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known Rule of Warfare, is an undistinguished Destruction, of all Ages, Sexes and Conditions.

Is every Stage of these Oppressions we have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble Terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated Injury. A Prince, whose Character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the Ruler of a free People.

Now have we been wanting in Attentions to our British Brethren. We have warned them from Time to Time of Attempts by their Legislature to extend their unwarrantable Jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the Circumstances of our Emigration and Settlement here. We have appealed to their native Justice and Magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the Ties of our common Kindred to disavow these Usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our Connections and Correspondence. They too have been deaf to the Voice of Justice and of Consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the Necessity which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of Mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace, Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the World for the Rectitude of our Intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly Publish and Declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES; that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political Connection between them and the State of Great-Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which INDEPENDENT STATES may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm Reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.

Signed by ORDER and in BEHALF of the CONGRESS,

JOHN HANCOCK, President.

THE MONITOR. N^o 4.

Soma quam Antiqua, Virginitas, vult?
Cui de Nat. Dignum.

THE other Night, as I was sitting in my Favourite Chair, in my Study, I was considering some Method to give our Fair
Ladies a full View of my own Noble, when, of a sudden, I was surprised to see three Figures at the Door of my secret Chamber. My Man Demostrating to the Deity, which was only half dead, flew back again in a great Fright, and told me he was here it was the Devil, for he never saw such a Figure before. Pray, Sir, said I, direct the good Gentleman to walk in; and do you for Christ.

At the first Interview, I was inclin'd to my Man's Opinion, that 'twas a Devil; but whether Male, or Female, was in Doubt.

The Figure was upwards of Six Feet, a swarthy Complexion, a large Bushy Nose, that spread its fan on each Cheek, that took a great deal off from the Length of the Face; the Eyes no bigger than Foxes, and full of Redness; Mouth very large, and the Under-Lip hung over the Lip. The Devil was a Man's Hat; a Woman's Short Coat, that hung loose down to the Waists, which lay'd to and fro; and gave Air to the Body; (which was without Stays;) from the Waists downwards, was a large Pair of Trowsers fit for a Burgher Master.

As soon as we were seated, Demostrating behind my Chair, and whisper'd me, the Candle burnt blue. I order'd him to withdraw and shut the Door after him; which he was willing to comply with: After taking a thorough View, I desired to know in what Manner I was to address my self, Sir, or Madam? The Answer was, I am a Woman, Sir, and Mistress of a large Family; I find you are much surpris'd at my Dress, which shall explain, and proceed to my Business.

See, Sir, I am a Woman of Fashion; I am and know, Female, and the Devil you see me in my Dress, which is more modest.

I told her, I thank'd her for her Relation, but that I was going to be busy, therefore desired her to be brief.
To which she reply'd, Sir, I'll take up as little of your Time as possible, and therefore shall come to the Point.

I am inclin'd you are acquainted with the Monitor, &c. &c. and therefore what I have to propose, is to leave you: I have to do all the Good in my Power: I have Six Daughters (God bless them all) and each of them capable of any Post he shall think proper to confer upon them.

Here I was more confirm'd than ever, and took the Womans to be good; to which I reply'd, Madam, What Post are they desirous of? O! Sir, reply'd the Lady, they have different Talents. There's my Eldest Daughter Miss Love, is as good a Girl at Attraction, as any in the Country; and will draw a Circle about her immediately when ever she goes.

Then my Second, Miss Sy; She has not one Bit of French in her, she's as sweet as Death.— Believe me,
Sir, she was once in a Company of 32 Women for 6 Hours, and never opened her Lips. You may set her down for some important Occasion.

My Third Daughter, Miss Frigate; She's here and there and everywhere; she never misses a Tea-Table, if there be Tea within the Compass of her Vitals in a Day;
There she hears Slander, Back-biting, and Scandal; which may turn out to some Use.

As to my Fourth Daughter, Amoret; She's a fine Girl, that's the Truth on't: She's for ever mould'ring her Lips with her Tongue, that gives them a pouring Ripeness that tempts all the young Fellows in the Town; then she's a Girl of a very inquisitive Temper; so she may be excellent in her way.

My Fifth Daughter, Phillis; She's an unaccountable Girl, the full Work of every Moon, she's dying for Love of some Fellow, or other.— She's for ever receiving or answering of Billet-doux, and Scraps of Poetry;
which may not be amiss.

As to my youngest Daughter, Euphemia; She's courted by Sir Politick Would-be; he can inform her how Affairs stand in — (but no Matter) She's a Girl of a bright Genius, and very willing; therefore, I take her to be undeniable.

And now, Sir, I have given you an Account of my Family. I live a great Way off; and as this was my chief Errand, I hope you'll dispatch me to my Satisfaction. If you please to enjoin them or me to Secrecy, they're within Call.

To which I reply'd, since they were so desirous of Employment, I would engage them for the Monitor;
but could not put them into immediate Service, 'till the Monitor had weigh'd the Matter, and considered their respective Qualifications: That if she pleas'd to send for them, I would talk to them: Upon which the good Lady, with the utmost Transport, leiz'd hold of a Pen, call'd for Half a Sheet of Paper, and dispatch'd her Messenger directly. I importun'd her, in the mean Time, to refresh her self, and recruit her Spirits with a Glass of wine, after her Fatigue; and in a short Space of Time, the Ladies arriv'd. After a little Discourse, they told me if I distrust'd their Honours, they were willing to be examin'd by Oath. Upon which I thought I could administer any Oath upon the Occasion, more binding than the Free-Mason; and, after talking the three thro' some of the usual Forms, I tender'd it to them, which they took with great Solemnity.

N. B. — The Monitor's Equipments will be settled as soon as possible.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

In America, a glorious fire has been lighted upon the altar of liberty . . . Keep it burning, and let the sparks that continually go from it fall on other altars, and light up in distant lands —
the fire of freedom.

WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON

Oh give me new figures! I can't go on dancing
 The same that were taught me ten seasons ago;
 The schoolmaster over the land is advancing,
 Then why is the master of dancing so slow?
 It is such a bore to be always caught tripping
 In dull uniformity year after year;
 Invent something new, and you'll set me a skipping:
 I want a new figure to dance with my Dear!

THOMAS HAYNES BAYLY

Many years ago this small building was the first combination secondary-elementary school in DeLand. It stood on the site of the present day Junior High School. This first wooden schoolhouse was torn down and a new brick building became DeLand's Junior-Senior High School. Since then our alma mater has grown and become the "mother of our growing knowledge." In 1962 DeLand Senior High moved to its present location as shown in this aerial view. Each year DeLand Senior High facilities expand as the number of students increases.

CARLYLE

Music moves us, and we know not why;
we feel the tears, but cannot trace their source.

L.E. CANDER

There is something marvelous in music. I might almost say it is, in itself, a marvel. Its position is somewhere between the region of thought and that of phenomena; a glimmering medium between mind and matter, related to both and yet differing from either. Spiritual, and yet requiring rhythm; material, and yet independent of space.

REMEMBRANCE

Looking behind,
my mind
glimpses,
faded memories,
yellowed photographs
of dim and withered feelings.
Ahead of me,
lies,
bright tomorrows,
new beginnings in search of,
unknown experiences.

The past
is yet to be forgotten,
the future ahead,
to be remembered.

STRANGERS AND FRIENDS

So ...
Here I am
A friend among strangers or possibly a stranger among friends.
Suddenly I can't remember which of the faces around me are friends.
They all seem like strangers now.
Friends are made of warmth and my soul has grown cold.
After being battered and torn apart by heartless strangers
and friends,
all of the warmth my soul once possessed fled as if in fear of these new feelings.
And as though this wasn't enough
I'm being broken down still further and further.
Why?
My warmth is gone, and with it my friends.
Without my friends I lost my love,
Without love I lost you.
There is nothing further for me to lose so why am I still being beaten and crushed by all these heartless strangers ...
and friends.

REMEMBER THE TIME

Remember the time I borrowed your car and dented the fender.
I thought you'd kill me ... but you didn't.

Remember the time you tried to get serious and I giggled. I thought you'd drop me ... but you didn't.

Remember the time we went to a dance and I forgot to tell you it was formal and you wore jeans. I thought you'd hate me ... but you didn't.

Remember the time I said I'd whisper that special something in your ear when you got back from Vietnam ...
But you didn't.

Where has the magic of being a child gone?
I felt the enchantment as we played hide and Seek and tag in the afternoons after school.
And remember the old tree house and the go-cart?
Even when I would fall, the spell seemed to Pick me up and wipe away the tears.
Football games and bike races, arguing and Laughter, were all filled with an extra spark
Of charm and delight non-existent in my present life.
Oh childhood magic, I remember
You so very well. Why must growing up Take away the frivolity and irresponsibility Of youth? How I miss that magic of being Young!

I got a secret!

"I dream of the perfect yearbook."

All-Star Cast.

What do you mean do it over Again, aGain, agAin . . .

What a way to make a good, honest living.

Is NOT my job?!

Who says I can't write good captions?

Can I get this table in focus?

N.B.C. newcaster and D.H.S. editor exchange ideas.

Of course your picture will be in the Athenian.

We NEVER have disagreements, but we ALWAYS have good discussions.

"I beg of you, give me my pictures! Pretty please?"

"You say it's impossible, I say anything is possible!"

I'm sorry, we only sell yearbooks here.

CLASS
1976

There's never a dull moment at a Senior Class meeting!

Do a little dance...

No caption neccesary.

Things are looking up for the class of '76'.

Duh ... would you mind repeating that one more time?

No one should have to battysit when they get to be my age!

Before ...

... and after.

BEST PERSONALITY

Cary Payne and Pat Griffin, dependable, attractive and friendly, radiate personality plus. They always are ready to give a helping hand and hopeful advice. D.H.S. salutes these two popular seniors.

Ben Sheats and Theresa McGraw; voted most attractive by this year's senior class, certainly have an appealing appearance. They personify the rare distinctive quality called charisma.

MOST ATTRACTIVE

MOST INTELLECTUAL

Lisa Frison and Robert Youngquist exemplify the young intellectuals of today. They are interested and concerned about the world in which they live while at the same time they recognize the importance of academic achievement.

On the path to success, Margaret Kane and Mike Laurendi give the student body the incentive to succeed. Margaret, with an interest in a political career, and Mike, with an appointment to West Point, are destined to become outstanding community leaders.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

MOST ATHLETIC

They discipline their bodies to attain the highest performance in their chosen sport. Terri Lane and Greg Grady, determined to win, always give their superior efforts.

When the title most individual is mentioned, Fred Ringwald and Kim Sands always come to mind. Two outstanding and unusual students — respected by their peers and known by many. They certainly do their own thing.

MOST INDIVIDUAL

MOST TALENTED

Talent brings forth its pleasure when Connie
Gregory and Todd
Swann
perform.

Steve Pate and Pam Flowers are two reliable leaders who show outstanding personality, dedication, and amiability.
They have guided their peers to the future of tomorrow.

I BELIEVE

I believe in the supreme worth of the individual and in his right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. I believe that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty. I believe in the dignity of labor, whether with head or hand; that the world owes no man a living but that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living. I believe that thrift is essential to well-ordered living and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business, or personal affairs. I believe that truth and justice are fundamental to an enduring social order. I believe in the sacredness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that character — not wealth or power or position — is of supreme worth. I believe that the rendering of useful service is the common duty of mankind and that only in the purifying fire of sacrifice is the dross of selfishness consumed and the greatness of the human soul set free. I believe in an all-wise and all-loving God, named by whatever name, and that the individual's highest fulfillment, greatest happiness, and widest usefulness are to be found in living in harmony with His will.

Another revote?

Ymm-yum-yum.

This is a job for SUPER woman . . . You!

So what if my feet hurt!

I always clean my fingernails during meetings.

Who me?

She loves me! She loves me not!

A secretary's work is never done.

I AM THE NATION

I was born on July 4, 1776, and the Declaration of Independence is my birth certificate. The bloodlines of the world run in my veins, because I offered freedom to the oppressed. I am many things, and many people. I am the nation.

I am over 200 million living souls — and the ghost of millions who have lived and died for me.

I am Nathan Hale and Paul Revere. I stood at Lexington and fired the shot heard around the world. I am Washington, Jefferson and Patrick Henry. I am John Paul Jones, the Green Mountain Boys and Davy Crockett. I am Lee and Grant and Abe Lincoln.

I remember the Alamo, the Maine and Pearl Harbor. When freedom called I answered and stayed until it was over, over there. I left my heroic dead in Flanders Fields, on the rock of Corregidor, on the bleak slopes of Korea and in the steaming jungle of Viet Nam.

I am the Brooklyn Bridge, the wheat lands of Kansas and the granite hills of Vermont. I am the coalfields of the Virginias and Pennsylvania, the fertile lands of the West, the Golden Gate and the Grand Canyon. I am Independence Hall, the Monitor and the Merrimac.

I am big. I sprawl from the Atlantic to the Pacific . . . my arms reach out to embrace Alaska and Hawaii . . . 3 million square miles throbbing with industry. I am more than 5 million farms. I am forest, field, mountain and desert. I am quiet villages — and cities that never sleep.

You can look at me and see Ben Franklin walking down the streets of Philadelphia with his breadloaf under his arm. You can see Betsy Ross with her needle. You can see the lights of Christmas, and hear the strains of "Auld Lang Syne" as the calendar turns.

I am Babe Ruth and the World Series, I am 130,000 schools and colleges, and 320,000 churches where my people worship God as they think best. I am a ballot dropped in a box, the roar of a crowd in a stadium and the voice of a choir in a cathedral. I am an editorial in a newspaper and a letter to a Congressman.

I am Eli Whitney and Stephen Foster. I am Tom Edison, Albert Einstein and Billy Graham. I am Horace Greeley, Will Rogers and the Wright brothers. I am George Washington Carver, Daniel Webster and Jonas Salk.

I am Longfellow, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Walt Whitman and Thomas Paine.

Yes, I am the nation, and these are the things that I am. I was conceived in freedom and, God willing, in freedom I will spend the rest of my days.

May I possess always the integrity, the courage and the strength to keep myself unshackled, to remain a citadel of freedom and a beacon of hope to the world.

We are the Nation - America's hope for tomorrow.

Our years at DeLand High School
have provided us
with the essentials for success and the means of spreading the freedoms of the United States.

Let us remember that the past mixes with the future to become the present;
so consequently every moment of our lives must be spent and used wisely.

It is my hope that your memories of D.H.S. have all been captured in this 1976 Athenian created during our Nation's bicentennial celebration.
In God We Trust.
